MURALS + PUBLIC ART

DTLB is home to arguably the largest outdoor museum in SoCal, with works from the masters of contemporary art and street art. To honor this growing collection, we've asked Pow! Wow! artist Jeff McMillan to create a 01 Downtown gateway art installation at Broadway & Alamitos Avenue.

Much like all of Southern California, pinning down DLTB's architectural style is impossible. From art deco to craftsman, Google to brutalist, mid-century modern to Spanish revival, our neighborhoods are filled with buildings and homes that are both historic and beautiful.
